

---

Definition of VCS

---

VCS (= Version Control System) is a system which tracks and stores changes in a project. With the help of VCS it is possible to jump back to an older version. However it's possible to track new changes and store them in the VCS.